

KIRSTIN JONES

GRANTS & COMPLIANCE DIRECTOR

SHE | HER

Kirstin Jones manages Community Shelter Board's contracts with all public funders, including sub-awarding, invoicing, and monitoring activities. She oversees review and certification of CSB-funded programs to assure compliance with federal, state, and local regulations. Kirstin joins CSB with five years of experience in HUD funding and working with another unified funding agency, formerly serving as their Director of Grants and Operations. She earned an MBA focused on Information Technology Management from the University at Albany, SUNY.

Community Shelter Board leads a coordinated, community effort to make sure everyone has a place to call home. CSB is the collective impact organization driving strategy, accountability, collaboration, and resources to achieve the best outcomes for people facing homelessness in Columbus and Franklin County. With the support of a compassionate community, our system of care served 15,000 people last year with homelessness prevention, shelter, street outreach, rapid re-housing, and permanent supportive housing programs. Community Shelter Board is funded by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, the City of Columbus, the Franklin County Board of Commissioners, the State of Ohio, United Way of Central Ohio, Nationwide Foundation, American Electric Power Foundation, The Columbus Foundation, and many other public and private investors.
